CATHEART MAKES RINGING SPEECH

Goes Before Voters On His Record and Is Promised
Support.

John W. Cathcart, candidate for re-election on the Republican ticket as city and county attorney, was the feature of the evening at a rally of fourth district voters last night. The rally was held at School and Fort streets and brought out a big attendance, a thousand or more hearing the Republican candidate's discourse on vital campaign topics.

Mr. Cathcart lost no time in preliminaries after he was introduced. He plunged right into a vigorous speech in which he explained the policy of his office, proved by figures that it has been efficiently administered, made a strong plea for a straight Republican ticket and ended with a patriotic burst that furnished a good climax to one of the best addresses of the campaign.

"I am running for re-election on my record, and I want that record to be known," declared Attorney Cathcart. "I want every voter to know just what has been accomplished in the office of city and county attorney during the past two years. I am not exaggerating when I declare that the record made has never been duplicated in the island, and seldom anywhere in the states. Let the record speak for itself."

"Out of every ten persons we have accused of crime and prosecuted, we have convicted eight. The average percentage in the states is four in ten, and in the Oahu office before I took hold it was only three in ten."

"We have been successful because we have not prosecuted persons without basis for our charges and because having once started a prosecution, we kept at it. I have allowed no man, no influence, to sway me one inch from the right path."

"But I want to say that I have never persecuted. I have never knowingly tried to prosecute an innocent man. The poor man was a square deal from me, and always will."

"I ask your votes because I think I deserve them. I ask your votes also for the entire Republican ticket. Under Republican government the United States has become one of the powerful nations of the world, and the foundation of that government, like the foundation of a building, is in its smallest parts, in the community. We must elect a Republican legislature. The need is more pressing than ever before."

Cathcart's speech was roundly applauded. It was an enthusiastic meeting anyway, with all the Republican candidates there, and most of them spoke. A number were making their first appearance in this section of the city and the voters welcomed them with applause at their speeches and handshakes afterward.

ARMY OFFICIALS VISIT LEILEHUA

Generals Bliss and Aleshire
Will Select Site Today
For Buildings.

Brigadier-General Bliss and Quartermaster-General Aleshire, who arrived on the Mongolia yesterday, are today at Schofield Barracks, Leilehua, where they are inspecting the site for the proposed $600,000 construction work. A message from the barracks today stated that they will not return to Honolulu until tonight or tomorrow morning.

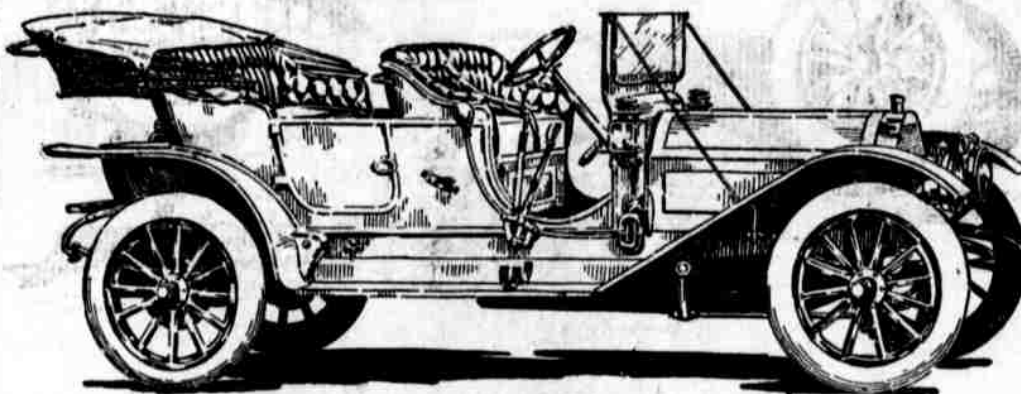

The location of the Leilehua buildings is one of the most important matters that General Aleshire will have to pass upon. The party, which includes Captain Falls of the local quartermaster's office, Colonel Schuyler, commanding the District of Hawaii, and others, will not return to Honolulu until the selection is made.

Tomorrow it is expected that the matter of exchange of property, whereby the Territory will get an armory site at the old barracks, near the Capitol, will be taken up.

RAIN MINGLED WITH THE TEARS

Berger's Melody Entwined
Departure of the Sierra.

The return to duty of the Territorial band, under the leadership of Captain Berger, proved the one enlivening feature at the departure of the Oceanic steamship Sierra, which got away for San Francisco at 10:20 o'clock this morning.

A driving rain setting in from the south had a somewhat dampening effect upon the spirits of the departing passengers as well as the usual crowd of visitors who rarely miss the sailing of a Coast-bound steamer. Raindrops and tears mingled in indescribable and touching profusion. The wharf was heavy with the conglomerated scent of floral tributes and the assorted aroma arising from a variegated cargo replying there.

The Sierra pulled away from the Oceanic wharf taking but forty-one cabin and twenty-seven steerage passengers. There was room enough for each traveler to have a stateroom to himself, should such a procedure upon the part of the steamship officials be deemed necessary.

There was the usual belated passenger who barely made the gangway before the last line was cast off. The delay in sailing was attributed to the loading of a large shipment of bananas. The popular San Francisco ferryboat is taking a shipment of Hawaiian products amounting to about fifteen hundred tons, included in the consignment are 25,000 pines, green and tanned; 2000 sacks rice, 2000 sacks coffee and 6000 bunches bananas. A quantity of sundries was also carried to the Coast.

A few Russians left for the Coast today by the Sierra. While their number was not as large as on former trips of the liner, it is plain that labor agents are still active in the islands in carrying on the work of recruiting workers for the mainland.

The Sierra's officers state that no attempt will be made this trip to tear off any records in the direction of reducing the sailing time between Honolulu and the Pacific Coast port.

SAVOY ARTISTS AT SCHOFIELD BARRACKS

Six of the vaudeville artists who will open at the new Savoy Theater on Friday evening went down to Schofield Barracks last night and gave a show for the soldiers that, judging by its reception, speaks well for their future success in Honolulu. The dainty little Countess La Pomme made the hit of the evening with the soldier boys, although they joyously showed their approval of Weaver and Archer, the musical comedy black-face team; also the Wilsons, in their singing and dancing acts, and especially Frank Archer, the Jewish comedian.
